EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

DECISION

CASE OF GREGORČIČ AND OTHERS v. SLOVENIA

(Application no. 20731/23)
introduced on 5 June 2023

The European Court of Human Rights, sitting on 5 October 2023 in a single-judge formation pursuant to Articles 24 § 2 and 27 of the Convention, has examined the application as submitted.

The application refers to Article 6 § 1 of the Convention, Article 8 § 1 of the Convention, Article 10 § 1 of the Convention and Article 13 of the Convention.

As concerns the complaints raised under Article 6 § 1 of the Convention and Article 13 of the Convention concerning the lifting of the interim measure by the Constitutional Court, the Court finds in the light of all the material in its possession that the matters complained of do not disclose any appearance of a violation of the rights and freedoms set out in the Convention or the Protocols thereto. Accordingly, these complaints are manifestly ill-founded within the meaning of Article 35 § 3 (a).

As concerns the remainder of the application, the Court finds that domestic remedies have not been exhausted as required by Article 35 § 1 of the Convention, since the proceedings giving rise to the issues under the Convention are still pending.

The Court declares the application inadmissible.
